Working Massachusetts

A Voice for Public Employees and Public Service

Have you heard the recent radio commercials on your local stations for "Working Massachusetts" highlighting the important work of public employees ? If you did you may have heard MOSES member Bill Gode from DCR explaining his incredible experience during the floods that occurred one year ago this month. To hear the Bill Gode ad click here.

MOSES is a proud member of the labor coalition Working Massachusetts. Working Massachusetts was founded on the principle that public employees play a significant role in this state and in our communities. As you know our membership has a great responsibility to protect and safeguard the citizens of Massachusetts. Bill Gode is one example of the work entrusted to us by the Commonwealth.

A coalition of thousands, and growing, we build, protect, provide, care for, educate, inform, innovate, and drive Massachusetts forward.

Together, we can give the residents of the Commonwealth a view into the special work we do. Spanning across the state, we are a unique group of men and women who perform the duties and deliver the services that are vital to building this State and our cities and towns.

With a united voice, we can spread the message of our great impact.
